WANTS HIS LIBERTY

A writ of habeas corpus was issued by Judge Estee yesterday for the production of the body of Leong Sai in the United States Court tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Marshal Hendry served the writ upon Collector Stackable at noon. The petitioner alleges that he was born in Ma-noa valley, October 21st, 1882, and that he is a resident of Honolulu.

His father, Leong Chun, is dead, and Wong See, his mother, now resides in Lam Long, Province of Canton, China.

On July 22, 1901, Leong Sai departed for Hongkong, returning here January 19th, 1902, on the China. Permission to land was refused by Collector Stackable, and the Chinese has been detained at the quarantine station up to the present time, the collector threatening to deport him on the Coptic. Petitioner says his residence is at the Hawaiian Annex, and alleges he is illegally restrained of his liberty.

HAMANO APPEAL SUBMITTED.

The appeal of H. Hamano was again before Judge Estee yesterday morning, and an attempt was made by Colonel Fitch to have the hearing resume its former status, as regards the taking of evidence. This the court refused to do, and the question of the right of the petitioner to appeal upon a matter which had not been raised originally in the protest to the collector, was submitted without argument. Judge Estee took the matter under advisement.

IN SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court reversed the Circuit Court in the case of J. M. Vivas vs. Mele Akoni yesterday. The suit was for an attorney's fee of $30 and the Circuit Court refused to set aside a judgment obtained by default in the District Court. In the opinion, written by Justice Perry, this is held to be an abuse of discretion.

In the case of Kau Ting Kee vs. Yim You the Circuit Court is sustained in its refusal to permit the substitution of a concern which had been out of existence for sixteen years for defendant. The court in the syllabus held:

"While the statute permits amendments to pleadings in any matter of mere form or by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, it is not error to refuse leave to amend a declaration by inserting the name of one or more persons in place of that of a sole party defendant, the effect of such an amendment if granted, being a charge or substitution of parties defendant."

Both opinions were unanimous, and were written by Associate Justice Perry.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Humphreys held a brief session of court yesterday afternoon, though not entirely recovered from his recent illness. Judge Gear and Judge Robinson both heard probate matters.

MEBRYDE BONDS AGAIN.

An order was made by Judge Humphreys yesterday approving the accounts of the master, E. M. Watson, in the guardianship of George H. Brown and Francis Hyde H. Brown. The guardian is allowed an increase from $50 per month to $100 per month each for the maintenance and education of the minors.

The investment of $1980 in two McBryde Sugar Company bonds "is neither approved nor disapproved, but the same is taken under advisement."

COURT NOTES.

The bill of exceptions has been allowed in the Kahilua divorce case. The appeal is by the libellee from the court's decision rescinding the order allowing $1000 alimony to the wife of Senator Kahilua.

Frank S. Dodge has been appointed guardian of the Dodge minors.

A. S. Cleghorn has filed a motion for order to show cause directed to W. R. Castle for refusing to turn over certain land of the estate of Antonio Philip.

J. D. McVeigh and M. C. Amara were sworn as deputy assessors yesterday.

In the case of C. A. Long vs. H. Armistage et al., motion for default and judgment have been made by H. Armistage, W. Lucas and W. H. Corawell.

This is the season when death stalks through the land in the form of pneumonia. The surest defense against this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always cures, and cures quickly. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.
